

NAHOKO BOLDEN

With her strong business and entertainment background, she is able to create the type of tone and ambiance that you desire to have for your events. She is also truly bicultural. She sounds natural whether, she is speaking in English or Japanese. Your international audiences would feel comfortable listing when she is your MC.

Japanese English Bilingual MC / Moderator

【Professional Background】
While she was a university student, she was hired as In-Flight Interpreter for North West Airlines (current Delta), flying to USA. After graduating from Ritsumeikan University in Kyoto, she moved to the business world. At SAP, she took on the role of executive interpreter for the president, but with her calm demeanor and ability to understand business topics, she was soon asked to be his Chief of Staff. Her strong business background and native English pronunciation make her a popular MC.
