Bilingual MC

【Career History】
After graduating from university, I worked for an IT company. I later studied abroad at a school in Canada, where I learned journalism and business English.
Since returning to Japan in 2018, I have been working as a bilingual MC in Japanese and English, hosting various events.
I have also served as a wedding celebrant and hosted wedding receptions for international couples in both Japanese and English, with experience in over 300 weddings.
