Japanese English Bilingual MC
（Chinese, Spanish, French）

【Career】

Born in Japan, brought up in the United States, Maaya has native-like fluency in both English and Japanese. She graduated from a prestigious Japanese university and further went on to graduate school to acquire an MA in linguistics. Upon graduation, she worked for Mitsubishi UFJ Morgan Stanley Securities as a financial advisor specializing in M&A deals. She was assigned to cross-border deals and showed her strengths in interpretation and translation.
Currently, she is an English consultant for business executives in finance, insurance, real estate, and IT industries. She works as a bilingual MC for global events where perfect command of both English and Japanese is needed. Maaya is capable of simultaneous interpretation during events as well. If a script is available, Maaya can MC in Chinese, Spanish and French.
