

Chugoku Region

Yumiko Nagai

Hometown: Tottori

Birthday: March 25

Certifications: Kimono Dresser, J-SHINE Certified Elementary School English Teacher

Hobbies: Gardening, Camping, Traveling, Cooking, Watching Theater

Special Skill: Growing tulips
(cultivates around 800 tulips annually)

Bilingual Event Host（ENG・JPN）
Voiceover artist/Corporate trainer

【Career Background】
Yumiko studied in the U.S. during high school and later majored in English and American Literature at Ritsumeikan University in Kyoto.
After working at a travel agency, she was asked to host her childhood friend's wedding—an experience that inspired her to pursue a career as a professional Master of Ceremonies (MC).
She now hosts not only weddings, but also various events, ceremonies, and lectures. Drawing on her international background, Yumiko works as a bilingual MC for global weddings, cruise ship events, and exhibitions. She also works as a voiceover artist and hospitality trainer.

【TV】
Chukai Television Broadcasting - Reporter (PV)

【MC・Events・Voiceover Artist】
- East Asia Inter-Regional Tourism Federation (ETOF) Reception
- The 37th Korea-Japan Urological Congress
- Asian-Pacific Congress on Ionic Liquid & Green Processes
- All-Japan Businessperson Boxing Championship
- Japanese Society of Gastroenterology Chugoku Regional Meeting
- Asuka II Welcome Ceremony in Sakaiminato
- Mr. Shachihoko Comedy Show
- BoltBolts Science Show
- Nippon Maru Departure Ceremony, and many more

[Wedding Experience (Japanese-English Bilingual)]
Yumiko has hosted around 500 wedding receptions in Japanese and bilingual formats, and has earned a strong reputation as a warm and reliable wedding MC.