

Hitomi Takimizu

Born: November 15
Kagawa, Japan
Certification：EIKEN Grade 1
Hobbies:dancing, cooking and eating!

Former NHK news anchor
Bilingual Emcee (EN/JP)

With vast experience in emceeing a variety of events, Hitomi Takimizu is a professional bilingual communicator. She has more than 10 years' experience working in television and radio as a reporter and news anchor.
She studied International Languages and Communication at Kansai Gaidai University. She also studied interpreting at TAFE Queensland, Australia.
She has acted as event coordinator or master of ceremonies for a number of events and functions. Some examples are given below:

【TV】
Evening News at NHK Takamatsu station
【Radio】
「T-Cross」「Good Day Humming」「SMILE MORNING」at FM Tokushima
【MC】
Ceremony for the 80th anniversary of designation of Setonaikai National Par