

Miyo Umeda

Multilingual Event Host
(Japanese, English, French)
Interpreter and Translator
(Japanese ↔ English)

Background

Born in Aichi Prefecture on December 13, Miyo is a graduate of International Christian University in Tokyo.
She holds a TOEIC score of 970 and a Level 2 certificate in French proficiency.
Outside of her professional work, she is an avid haiku poet and a member of the Haiku Poets' Association.

Miyo began her career as a secretary for international lawyers, and later worked as a translator for broadcasters and news agencies.

She has hosted major events including G20 ministerial meetings, global conferences, academic forums, business summits, and international sports events.
Fluent in Japanese and English, and conversational in French, she serves as a bilingual MC (Japanese-English), interpreting while hosting, with the help of advance scripts for clarity and flow. She also creates her own English MC scripts, enabling her to moderate smoothly and professionally on stage.

For French, she provides smooth, scripted moderation, making her a valuable asset for multilingual events.

Selected Hosting Highlights

G20 Niigata Agricultural Ministers' Meeting Welcome Reception
World Design Assembly Indo-Pacific Business Forum
TICAD Ministerial Meeting Reception hosted by Japan's Foreign Minister
LNG Producer-Consumer Conference TCFD Summit
Rugby World Cup 2019 Official Hospitality Program
PGA Tour MasterCard Japan Championship – Pro-Am Press Conference

Selected Interpretation / Translation Highlights

Localized and interpreted ESPN's SportsCenter for Japanese audiences
Subtitling for the Academy Awards broadcast for WOWOW
Translating international news scripts for Reuters
On-site interpreting for televised interviews and magazine features, including Montblanc (print), Che'Nelle and Randy Bass (TV).